

All Together Now - A Celebration of Tim and Cindy Snapp's Breeding Program

Tim and Cindy Snapp of New Carlisle, Ohio, are breeders well known in the APHA industry. Their knowledge and strong breeding program have never been more apparent than at the 2025 APHA World Championship Show when their striking, bay, three-year-old, All Together Now, won the Junior Hunter Under Saddle with the talented Laura Spell in the irons.

Earlier in the week, Laura had piloted him to a win in the Reserve Champion Gold 3 yr old Hunter Under Saddle and to a Bronze Championship 3 yr old Hunter under Saddle Sweepstakes, to the tune of over $12K.

Not only is "Evan" a perfect representation of the Snapp's breeding program, but Cindy Snapp says he's even more special because he's a gift of the last foal from his dam, Sexy Invitation, as she passed away when Evan was three months old.

"We had the mare for a lot of years, and it's nice we had him from her as her last baby," she says. "We just put him with the other weanlings, and he did fine; he's just a kind soul, and kind of an old soul."

Cindy went on her own winning streak with Evan this week, earning a World Championship and an Intermediate World Championship in Masters Jr. Hunter under Saddle, as well as a Reserve Championship in the 3 yr old Non Pro Hunter under Saddle Sweepstakes, and a Bronze Championship in the Breeders Trust 3 yr old Non Pro Hunter under Saddle!

Tim and Cindy had sent Evan to Spell Show Horses when he was a two year old, and Laura explains they took their time with him. "We hauled him a little bit, and knew we were going to show him as a three year old, so we've only shown him three times," she explains. "He's a happy horse, and it's easy for him – you don't have to help him. He just carries himself; he points his little toe and lopes around and has fun doing it."

Since All Together Now is such a natural talent, Laura adds that she didn't have to ride him earlier in the day. "I just took him out of his stall and showed him. He has been so fun and so easy. It's so exciting!"
